Court Appointed Special Advocates
FOR CHILDREN

KERN COUNTY

Dear Friend of CASA,

Enthusiasm builds as we are off to the races to raise up more advocates for abused and abandoned children in foster care living in Kern County. Meet us at Millionaires Row on May 4, 2019, at the spectacular Gardiner Ranch west of Bakersfield for an evening where we'll celebrate the Kentucky Derby... Kern County-style! Denim meets the Derby at the Boot Scootin' Derby Party, benefiting CASA of Kern County.

The evening includes a 5-Star outdoor grilled dinner, signature cocktails, entertainment, unique "must-have" live and silent auctions and a showing of the 2019 Kentucky Derby. Come in traditional Kentucky Derby attire or in your boots and cowboy hat! It's time for Church Hill Downs to meet good ol' Kern County roots.

The mission of CASA is to recruit, screen, train and supervise citizen advocates. These "CASAs" speak up for the child they are court-assigned to, due to the acute nature of their abuse or neglect. The CASAs comprehensively evaluate the child's life and report to the juvenile court about their best interests, and submit recommendations about the child or youth's unaddressed needs. This upscale annual fundraising dinner and auction brings together an evening of philanthropy and community engagement that will sustain and advance our work with abused foster children.

Yours in Advocacy,

Chris Towery

Chair
